Petersburg, Va., February 14.—The three commissioners—Charles T. Lassiter, A. W. Walsh and E. L. Fiers—appointed at last Tuesday night's meeting, met this afternoon at the office of Captain Lassiter, formed the Amateur Baseball Commission, and elected the following officers: President, William R. McKenney; vice-president, E. L. Fiers; secretary, Everett Ewing; treasurer, Herbert Pritchard.

The commission will have charge of all athletics to be engaged in by the amateurs of Petersburg and vicinity.

Charleston, S. C., February 14.—Although this way ladies' day, the fair sex did not turn out in the usual manner, probably because the weather was cold and at the same time threatening. The St. Valentine selling stakes of $1,000, for three-year-olds and upwards, at a mile and seventy yards, was the leading event of the day, and this went to the good thing. Busy who wards, at a mile and seventy yards, was the leading event of the day, and this went to the good thing, Busy, who took the lead at the head of the stretch, and drew out to win easily from Merry Lad. The race was worth $665 net to the winner, but the owner, L. H. Adair lost more than half the purse, when Amos Turney bid the horse up and made him pay $405 to retain him. It was the first bid-up in a selling race at the meeting. Donald MacDonald, formerly a great mudrunner, was favorite for the event, but he floundered about in the going and finished next to last. J. U. Strode arrived here yesterday, and he brings word that a carload of horses will be shipped from Cincinnati to Norfelk within the next few days. At Harrisburg, Pa., the party will receive a considerable addition in the person of Coach Wilbert Robinson, who has high hopes of developing another Marquard or Tesreau from the squad of young pitchers which McGraw has rounded up. Robinson has notified the management that he will bring along his son, who is eighteen years of age and said to be quite a ball tosser. Robby does not expect the youngster to become a regular Glant, but figures lost only one game cut of eleven, while the artillerymen have only two defeats san.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., February 14.—At a meeting of amateur baseball players and lovers of the game to-night at the Y. M. C. Philadelphia. February 14.—Manager Dooin now has his pair of Millers to count on for the Southern trip and the coming season. "Doe" dropped in on Locke and Dooin while they were in New York and assured both of them that everything was "all right," and that he would be on the platform when the train starts South. He didn't sign a contract, but said he intended to do so.

that he would be on the platform when the train starts South. He didn't sign a contract, but said he intended to do so.

The other Miller is Johnny, who called to assure everybody that everything was all right. Johnny is well known to every fan. He didn't attract much attention in the field last season, but his work with the bat was unequaled by any other member of the Phillies. He travered the strip of loam betwen the bench and home plate oftener than anybody else. Yes—you guessed it—he is the bat-boy.

Johnny, by the way, almost ran afoul of the National Commission the first day he showed at the Phillies Park. They had just returned from a trip West, and the Athletics had just left town in the same direction.

Johnny closely resembles Louis Van Zeist, who totes flails for the Mackmen, in height, breadth, physiognomy, etc. When he appeared of, the scene a howl went up from the fans and from the press box cockpit. Several scribes inmediately took steps to get in the National Commission's mailing list, but somebody happened to ask Boss Dooin by what stroke of strategy he had succeeded in wrenching Jouts out of the American League. Then it all came out, and a war between the two big Leagues was averted.

President Locke talked things over with "Little Joe" Finneran, who resides in Newark, N. J., after the National League meeting. It is quite likely that the Norfolk recruit will be among "them that goes" to the Pines, although over a montu ago he refused to sign a contract, asking for more money.

Three Win Places.

New York, February 14.—T. R. Pell, the Olympic player; Gustave F. Touchard, the former champion, and Walter Merrill Hall won their places in the fourth round of the national indoor lawn tennis championship today. Pell defeated Dr. William Rosenbaum by the score of 6—3, 6—0, and Touchard disposed of Remsen Schenck, of the Park Slope Club, by the score of 6—3, 6—0.
